INFORMATION FOR AWAY FANS

Information in this guide is correct as at 1 January.

Welcome to Ipswich! For most of you (if you are not ground hoppers) this will be your first trip to Portman Road. We hope you enjoy the day.

This is a short guide, designed to answer the kind of questions that we often get from visiting fans, and provide the information that we find useful when we're travelling away ourselves.

For any further information, or if you have any feedback on our guide, please contact Elizabeth Edwards, Supporter Liaison Officer, on slo@itfc.co.uk or 07968 876504 or via Twitter on @ITFC_SLO.

IF YOU HAVE AN HOUR OR TWO PRE-MATCH IN IPSWICH

The stadium is just a short, 5-10 minute, walk to the town centre, with shops, cafes and restaurants. The waterfront area is around a 15-minute walk from the ground, with a yachting marina and a range of cafes and restaurants. Note that the designated away pub is the Station Hotel (details below). Many pubs and bars in the town centre are strictly home fans only (more info below), whilst others are more relaxed – this does vary from match to match though. A number of pubs around the town will welcome small numbers of away fans, especially those looking for a chat and a quiet pint. Just beyond the town centre, 15 minutes' walk from the ground, is the beautiful Christchurch

Park, with a renowned art gallery within the Tudor mansion building. This is currently housing a special free temporary exhibition – Made in Suffolk – which is about Ed Sheeran’s life and career. More information on the exhibition and details for booking tickets (free) can be found here: www.ipswich.cimuseums.org.uk/exhibitions/madeinsuffolk/

HOW TO GET TO THE STADIUM

Back in 2003, we hosted an England international v Croatia. On the England fans message board, someone asked “how do I get from the station to the ground?” The response was simple: “Come out of the station and look straight ahead. The ground is the oblong structure with floodlights at each corner.”

- BY CAR

Note 1: There are long-term roadworks on the A14 (several miles either side of Cambridge) which are resulting in evening and weekend road closures and considerable delays, as it is a very busy road. These are not normally announced until just a day or two in advance. We recommend that you keep an eye on @A14C2H on Twitter – any closures are announced here.

Note 2: A new stretch of the A14 is now open, from the A1 to about 5 miles west of Cambridge, so you must follow road signs and not your Sat Nav. In particular, when joining the A14 from the north on the A1 you will now follow the A1 for a few extra miles before reaching the junction for the A14 East. On your return trip, the junction of the A14 / A428 / M11 on the edge of Cambridge is not well signposted, so take it slowly, and beware of even locals getting confused and doing late lane changes!

The address is Portman Road, Ipswich, IP1 2DA.

From Accrington the most direct option is to take the A680 and A56 to the M66. From the M66 join the M62 to the A1. Follow the A1 / A1(M) to the A14. As noted above follow the road signs rather than your Sat Nav to the junction of the A14.

You then take the A14 to the outskirts of Ipswich and follow the ‘Last few miles’ below.

An alternative route is via the M6 (you may want to use the M6 toll to avoid any potential hold-ups around Birmingham) which you take to the A14. Instructions are then as above. The M6 is usually very busy and has stretches with low speed limits due to roadworks.

Please note that the major long-term roadworks on the A14 for several miles either side of Cambridge have a 40mph limit policed by cameras.

Both routes can take around 5 hours but are likely to take a lot longer with roadworks and speed restrictions on route.

Unless you live very close to Suffolk, we generally recommend allowing at least an hour, and ideally 90 minutes, beyond the AA / Google / Sat Nav suggested journey time.

The last few miles

Sat Navs vary in their recommended route into town, but whichever way you go, it shouldn’t take more than 15 minutes from the A14/A12 junction to the ground.

For those without Sat Nav, once you reach the junction of the A12 and A14, just south of Ipswich, take the A1214 (London Road) for a couple of miles into town. As you approach the town centre area, there's a Sainsbury's supermarket on the left – at this point, go straight on past Sainsbury's and then almost immediately right onto West End road. Take the first left (after about half a mile) onto Sir Alf Ramsey Way and you've arrived.

Note that the roads immediately behind the Cobbold and Sir Bobby Robson stands are closed about 90 minutes before the game, so to access the NCP car park on Portman Road you will need to continue on London Road, straight on to Handford Road and then turn right at a set of traffic lights onto Portman Road (if you miss the turning, just do a U-turn at the roundabout with Civic Drive, turning back onto Handford Road, then taking the first left into Portman Road).

- PARKING

There is no official stadium car park, but there is parking all around the ground. The closest is a large NCP on Portman Road (right by the away end), which usually has spaces up to around 45 minutes before kick-off. There's also a large car park on West End Road (5 minutes' walk away) and at the railway station (less than 10 minutes). The town centre is less than 10 minutes' walk, and has numerous car parks, as you'd expect. Being a town centre ground, most streets are controlled (residents only) parking, so free on-road parking tends to be at least a 20-minute walk away. As usual, the car parks nearest the ground are a bit slow to clear after the game – for a quicker exit, use the railway station car park (it's controlled by cameras, and the pay stations are by the entrance to the station – it costs £5 all day at weekends), and exit left onto Burrell Road / Ranelagh Road (B1075), then (after about a mile) left onto the A1214.

Five car parking spaces are available for visiting disabled supporters. Spaces can be booked by contacting Ipswich Town's Disability Liaison Officer, Lee Smith, on 01473 400556. There is no charge for this parking but note that the spaces are on the opposite side of the stadium to the away turnstiles.

- BY COACH

Away coaches usually park in the West End Road car park, 5 - 10 minutes' walk from the ground. It is possible to arrange a drop-off nearer to the stadium for fans with mobility issues – please contact Ipswich Town's Disability Liaison Officer, Lee Smith, on 01473 400556 in advance of the game to arrange this.

The Station Hotel (away fans pub – see below) is just a couple of minutes away – go towards the bridge over the river, at the east end of the car park, turn right and you'll find the pub the other side of the river, right opposite the railway station.

- BY TRAIN

IF YOU ARE INTENDING TO TRAVEL BY TRAIN PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING IMPORTANT INFORMATION.

Note 1: As a result of engineering work, buses will replace trains between Marks Tey and Ipswich. The bus journey is scheduled to be 49 minutes, with a total travel time from London to Ipswich of around 2 hours.

Note 2: The last connecting train to Accrington (with a change in Preston) from London Euston after the game is at 19:30. Due to the engineering works mentioned in Note 1, the first bus/train to London does not arrive at London Liverpool Street until 18:58 which is too tight to connect to the train from Euston.

Note 2: It is usually possible to travel cross-country to Ipswich. However, at the time of writing there is severe disruption on the Peterborough to Ipswich line which has been ongoing for a few weeks, variously excused as signalling problems or the introduction of new trains. At the time of writing this guide, the rail service between Ipswich and Peterborough is cancelled "until further notice". A rail replacement bus service has operated where trains have been cancelled, and/or passengers may be directed to Ipswich via Cambridge or Norwich. Note that changes and cancellations to the scheduled services are often being announced on the day of travel.

For those managing to arrive by train or rail replacement bus, Ipswich station is only 5 to 10 minutes' walk from the ground.

If you travel via London, as mentioned above this will involve a bus for part of the journey. From Accrington you will change at Preston for a train to London Euston. To get from Euston to Liverpool Street on the underground you can take the Circle or Hammersmith & City Line from Euston Square (which you walk to from Euston). Alternatively, you can take the Northern Line (City Branch) from Euston to Bank and then take the Central Line to Liverpool Street. From Liverpool Street you will take a train to Marks Tey where you pick up a bus to Ipswich. The bus journey is 49 minutes. The journey time from Accrington is around 5 hours 45 minutes. www.greateranglia.co.uk indicates trains leaving Accrington at 07:12 and 08:13 which following the journey above are scheduled to arrive in Ipswich at 12:58 and 13:58 respectively.

After the game buses leave Ipswich for Marks Tey at 17:02, 17:38, 18:02 and 18:40. These connect to trains at Marks Tey to Liverpool Street. The total journey time to Liverpool Street is around 2 hours. Note that none of these connect to the last train out of London Euston (19:30) which connects to a train to Accrington at Preston. To make this train you would need to catch the bus from Ipswich at 16:50. You might instead travel back via Manchester, where late buses run from Chorlton Street to Accrington.

As a result of the disruption on the Ipswich – Peterborough route, we cannot reasonably recommend any cross-country options. If trains should be reinstated before matchday, we will inform your SLO and also post on our Twitter account @ITFC_SLO.

Whatever your travel plans, it's worth checking www.greateranglia.co.uk or your usual train operator website for updated times and any late changes to engineering works.

There are ticket checks on all mainline trains and ticket barriers at Ipswich.

OFFICIAL AWAY PUB

The Station Hotel (formerly the Riverside Hotel) is opposite the station, and is the official away pub. It is roomy, has a garden and TV screens, and up to four beers on handpump, mostly from the Greene King stable.

Most pubs immediately around the ground are for home fans only, and few pubs around the town, if any, will welcome groups of away fans, especially wearing away team colours. As always, couples, families and older people will find it a bit easier to slip into a town centre pub for a quiet beer or two. Note that, on a match-by-match basis, police may designate other pubs in the town centre as home fans only. This is more likely nowadays as there have been a number of pub closures in the immediate area around the stadium. In practice, the smaller and the friendlier the away following, the easier it is to enjoy our many great pubs on a matchday.

There is a FanZone marquee and entertainment zone at the stadium, but this is strictly open to home fans only. There are ticket checks at the door.

NEED CASH?

The nearest cash machines to the stadium are a 5-10 minute walk away, (a) at the railway station, (b) at the Cardinal Park leisure zone, and (c) in the town centre itself.

STADIUM

- HOSPITALITY

Our Hall of Fame restaurant is offering a set 3 course meal for only £20 per person prior to the match. Former Town player and legend Bryan Hamilton will be your host.

This is a mixed home and away fans restaurant which can be found in the same stand as the away end. Following the meal, it is therefore just a short walk to the away turnstiles.

Places are limited so early booking is advised by ringing 01473 400594.

- MATCHDAY PROGRAMME

The matchday programme can be purchased outside the stadium from the blue, tardis-like kiosks. Programmes are 68 pages and cost £3.50. Programmes are not for sale inside the ground.

- SECURITY

As at most away grounds, you can expect to be searched prior to entering the ground. Ipswich Town also uses a trained search dog and some stewards now wear body cameras.

- BAGS

Large bags will not be permitted to be taken into the stadium. By way of guidance, nothing larger than a standard carrier bag will be allowed. There are no facilities to leave bags.

- SEATING

Portman Road is a traditional ground, with 4 separate stands. The away end is blocks V1 and V2 of the Cobbold Stand. This gives you a good side-stand upper-tier view of the action. The Cobbold stand is an older stand, dating from the 1970s.

Ambulant disabled fans, who require limited stepped access, will be seated within block S of the lower tier of the Cobbold Stand. Accessible toilets are on the concourse of the lower tier. Ambulant disabled supporters wishing to sit in the Upper Tier can do so but please note that there is no lift access or accessible toilet facility in this area.

As we do not have wheelchair spaces in the Cobbold Stand, wheelchair users are located with home fans in the East of England Co-op Stand.

Adult tickets are priced at £27.00 (upper tier, Cobbold Stand) with concession prices available for Seniors over 65, under 23s and under 19s. Adults tickets for wheelchair users (East of England Co-op stand) and ambulant disabled fans (block S, Cobbold Stand) are priced at £23 with concession prices for Seniors over 65, under 23s and under 19s – these tickets include a carer. Ambulant disabled supporters wanting to go in the upper tier pay the block V1 and V2 price.

If tickets are available on the day you will be able to purchase these at turnstiles 10 and 11. These are cash turnstiles with no debit or credit card facilities for away fans. There is no additional matchday charge. We will advise your SLO as soon as we are able to confirm availability on the gate.

The Away Ticket Office in Portman Road (next to the away turnstiles) is open on a matchday to deal with any queries.

- HUNGRY OR THIRSTY?

Food and drink facilities are what you'd expect (pies, hot dogs, confectionery etc). Alcohol availability in the away end is determined on a match-by-match basis. We will advise your SLO as soon as we have the relevant information. Food and drink (alcohol if available) prices are as follows:

IF YOU'RE SPENDING A BIT MORE TIME IN IPSWICH...

HOTELS

Ipswich has numerous hotels, many at the budget end of the market, within a comfortable walk from the ground. Of the chains, the nearest are the Novotel and Penta hotels (5 mins), with the Premier Inn and Travelodge around 10-15 mins from the ground in the harbourside area and a newish lodge at the Mermaid pub (Marstons), also about a 10-minute walk. For a more upmarket option, the Salthouse Harbour Hotel is on the harbourside, and Milsoms (Kesgrave) is in a country house setting on the eastern edge of Ipswich. The Railway at Westerfield is about 3 miles out of town, but is a lovely traditional pub with great food and frequent trains that get you to Ipswich station in just a few minutes.

(There are many other hotels in and around Ipswich – we have no connection with these listed, but suggest them for convenience as they are mostly close to the ground and have been well spoken of by many fans).

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

There is so much to do in and around Ipswich, making it ideal for a short break.

Local attractions include:

- Harbourside and marina, with numerous restaurants, cafes and bars
- Town centre, with many independent stores dotted around a fairly compact area
- New Wolsey Theatre, one of the UK's leading regional theatres, with a year-round programme of great plays and shows, including their own productions and national tours. Their rock n roll panto runs from early December to early February, and is simply unmissable – even, or especially, if you don't "do" conventional pantos.
- Christchurch Park, Mansion and Gallery – a huge, 70-acre park just north of the town centre, including a Tudor mansion which houses a renowned (and free) art gallery (with a permanent display of local artist John Constable)
- Pubs selling a wide range of locally-brewed real ales, with town centre options including the Fat Cat, Greyhound, Dove Street Inn, St Judes Tavern, Thomas Wolsey and Briarbank Brewery. Of these, the Dove, St Judes and Briarbank are also microbreweries, and the Dove has a fabulous dedicated gin parlour.

- Felixstowe is just 15 miles (15 minutes, via the A14) away to the east, and is both a traditional seaside resort (there's a pier and the promenade stretches for a couple of miles) and major container port, which includes a fantastic viewing point, where you can see shipping movements and the loading / unloading of the world's largest container ships.
- The Orwell Bridge carries the A14 over the river to Felixstowe, and is an impressive sight from below. You get to it off the A137, which is a mile or so east of the A12/A14 junction. The road under the Orwell Bridge then meanders for a few miles past Pin Mill (the Butt & Oyster is a lovely old waterside inn) and onto Shotley, which has loads of yachts and great views of the ports of Felixstowe and Harwich.
- The historic little town of Woodbridge is just a few miles from Ipswich, with a tide mill, lots of little boutiques, some fine pubs, and an Adnams Wine and Beer store (next to the station)
- Just a bit further up the coast you'll find the beautiful seaside town of Aldeburgh with its famous fish & chip shop (it's the one at the north end of the High Street, with the big queue outside), as well as some wonderful little shops and pubs. You'll pass the concert hall, antique, home furnishings and fine foods shops of Snape Maltings en route to Aldeburgh, and it's well worth the short detour – no national chains here!
- If you've managed to get as far as Aldeburgh, you may well be tempted to continue a bit further up the coast, past the impressive power station at Sizewell, to the beautiful seaside town of Southwold, home of Adnams beers, a pier, and lots of little shops and galleries.
